

Claim No. 114.

Under Article 4. Treaty of 11th June 1866, with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Matilda M^cIntosh, a Freedwoman, of the Creek Nation, and loyal refugee, aged about 26, and now the wife of Joseph M^cIntosh a Freedman of the same Nation, who served as a soldier in the 79th Regt U.S. Col'd Troops, in the war of the Rebellion, being duly examined and sworn, (she conversing in and understanding the English language,) deposes and Says: Whilst living on her place, with her said husband, on the Canadian River about ten miles from North Fork Town, and sometime in August 1863, she was compelled to abandon the same, and fled away hastily, with her husband, and went to Gibson, and thence to Kansas, where she remained until the close of the war, and then returned to the Nation: that she and her husband were compelled to take flight because of the presence of the rebel troops, who came up after the battle at Honey Springs - This deponent further says: At the time she left her home as aforesaid, she owned and possessed in her own right all the property hereinafter named (and which she was possessed of prior to her marriage) and necessarily abandoned the same to the rebels, and has never since received the same, or any part thereof: to Say:

The undersigned, Willis Casar, and Joe Howard, Freedmen of the Creek Nation, and loyal refugees, being jointly duly examined and Sworn (they understanding and conversing in the English language,) do depose and say: They are not interested in the claim of Matilda M^c Intosh in any pecuniary manner whatever: That they have heard the foregoing affidavit read to them, and know its contents to be correct and true: that the said Matilda did, before her marriage, own and possess, and did, at the time of her flight from her home, necessarily abandon and lose all the article, enumerated in her deposition, and in the manner stated by her. Further these deponents do not say

Willis Caesar.

Awards

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony. Also, the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is, in some instances, considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found, the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Horses:-	$33.33 Each.-
Hogs:-	2.00 ..
Corn:- per bushel.	.50 ..

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

House furniture, beds, bedding, &c.	$100.00 Farming Tools, Kitchen Utensils, &c.

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant
